COMMENTS: DOVER: The town of Dover was laid out in 1764 by Jacob Joner. Dover has seen a varied history since that time. On July 1, 1863, the village of Dover was occupied by a large cavalry force led by J.E.B. Stuart. Because of the poor means of communication at that time, they did not realize as they lingered in Dover that the first day of the Battle of Gettysburg was being fought. In 1901, Brookside Park opened and beginning in November of 1902, it was serviced by the trolley lines of the York Street Railway Company. Many families would pack their children and picnic baskets onto the trolley for a ride and spend the day at the park. One of the children's favorite attractions at the park was the large German Carousel. Unfortunately, all that remains of the carousel today is the large carousel house, a reminder of the more leisurely times of a bygone era.

TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS: Both the 10 and 5K walks are on sidewalks within the borough and along roadsides within the township. Neither walk is suitable for wheelchairs; but, with caution, large wheeled strollers could be used. There are several gradual inclines.
